review 1: Lisa Mangum has a really interesting and distinctive writing style, and at first I wasn't really sure how well it would work with a contemporary novel. I was pleasantly surprised by how much I ended up enjoying Sam and Sara's story. I've been reading a lot of contemporary lately, and this one definitely has many of the hallmarks of the genre, but it also has a unique and delightful ...

Seeing as how I absolutely loved The Hourglass Door series by Lisa Mangum, I was a little disappointed in her newest novel, After Hello. It is a romance, which I tend to have a soft spot for. I found it interesting that the perspective changed from the two main characters, Sam and Sara, with each chapter.
