Personality type refers to the psychological classification of different types of individuals. Personality types are sometimes distinguished from personality traits, with the latter embodying a smaller grouping of behavioral tendencies. Types are sometimes said to involve qualitative differences between people, whereas traits might be construed as quantitative differences.

The above picture has a grid line for the size of the counters. These counters are 1/2" in size. Ideally, you also want a gutter area around the edge of the counter that no print will go into. I rarely actually define a gutter area, but strive instead to keep the printed area well away from the edges.
