Future Grace | Desiring God

Probably the most readable (not to mention spiritually satisfying!) of Piper's books that I've read so far. The book is divided into 31 chapters, most of them focusing on Piper's thesis--that the way of sanctification is by having faith in God's future grace--but also many chapters on how to apply that faith to battle various sins.

people to trust in God's future grace. Faith in future grace, not gratitude, is the missing ethical power to overcome rebellion and motivate obedience. Just when today's Christian would probably say the problem is lack of gratitude, the biblical writers again and again say that the problem is a lack of faith in God's future grace. Moses ...

A FOE TO FAITH IN FUTURE GRACE - Desiring God

In other words, we learn that grace is not merely a past reality but a future one. Every time I reach for the Bible, God's grace is a reality that will flow to me. Every time I put the Bible down and go about my business, God's grace will go with me. This is what I mean by future grace. • John Piper, Future Grace

Future Grace Quotes by John Piper - Goodreads

In the Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5), if the key to doing the harder thing is faith in future grace (believing it with all your heart), then the key to doing the easy thing is also faith in future grace. A legalist tends to attack a command directly with the intention of doing it.
