The English word language derives ultimately from Proto-Indo-European *dn̥ǵʰwéh₂s "tongue, speech, language" through Latin lingua, "language; tongue", and Old French language. The word is sometimes used to refer to codes, ciphers, and other kinds of artificially constructed communication systems such as formally defined computer languages used for computer programming.

Indian English is the register of the English language characteristic of the Republic of India. The Constitution of India designates primary co-official language of the Government of India as English, along with Hindi. However, India in general has only a moderate level of success in the usage of language compared to other English speaking and EFL countries.

The conversion from Thaana to Roman script follows the guidelines developed by Maldivian linguists in the 1970s. Consonants represent usual English sounds, except the combined consonants, e.g. lh, th, dh, gn, kh, and gh. The "sh" combination is the same in both languages. Double consonants are pronounced with stress. In this dictionary, double dhaalu is written "ddh" instead of the ...
