Metanoia, a transliteration of the Greek μετανοια, is "a transformative change of heart; especially: a spiritual conversion." The term suggests repudiation, change of mind, repentance, and atonement; but "conversion" and "reformation" may best approximate its connotation. In The King James Version of the Bible, its verbal cognate metanoieo, μετανοειω, is translated as repent.

First, it is vitally important to realize that there is a definite difference between the soul and spirit according to the Bible. Second, it is equally important to realize that our experience of this distinction very much affects our progress in the Christian life.

What Is the Difference Between the Soul and Spirit of Man?

By spiritual union with the living Lord Jesus, every Christian has the provision to be at "rest" - avoiding the striving performance to achieve or overcome thoughts in the mind, feelings in the emotions, difficulties in decision-making, and urgings in one's desires.
